

YOM
KIPPUR

Break
the Fast

Over the years, many of us have carried on a tradition of breaking the Yom Kippur fast at each other's homes.

As our demographics have begun to change, some of us have been left without an invitation. We also have newcomers or passers-by at our services and we've decided as a congregation that we'd like to get together and host one event that everyone will be included in.

If you're still having your own BreakFast, it might be fun to consider joining up with us after services instead.

We may be small in numbers but we are huge when we gather together in friendship. Plus it's less work for the hostess!

This year Ohev Sholom will host a "Break The Fast" immediately following services on Yom Kippur evening, Wednesday, September 19, 2018 at the JCC.

There will be no charge but we are asking for an RSVP by September 12 to Linda in the synagogue office.
